

I like everything about my satellite radio and don't wanna have anything taken away. I pay my taxes, I pay my fees to XM and y'all get taxes out of that. Don't take away something I'm rightfully paying for just so antiquated technologies like FM radio continue to try to rule the airwaves. I wanted high quality signals, so I got away from analog radio, don't make me take a step back